ADVERTISEMENT.

THE flattering solicitations of my Friends have induced me to publish the following Collection of FIGURES, sketched from the life at various times as the objects presented themselves, and drawn on Stone, without the smallest alteration in character or attitude.

The capacity of the Lithographic Art to produce fac similes from Drawings, has been the great inducement to employ its powers in the present Work, which will therefore maintain all the freedom and spirit the original Sketches might possess.

In a few days I purpose to publish a series of Four Numbers of Lithographic Impressions, from studies of Landscape Scenery, comprising Thirty-Two Subjects, to be drawn with the pen in the manner of free Etchings, which will be delivered at One Guinea and a Half each Number.
